STATE RESTS IN THAW CASE MONDAY NOON

Hardly a Dozen Witnesses
Were Examined
by Prosecution

Simple Brevity of the Presentation of the Case Against Him

NEARLY APPALLS DEFENDANT

He Is Met and Cheered by His Wife and Mother, After Court Adjourned.

New York, Feb. 4.—One hundred talesmen ordered to appear before Justice Newberger at the February term of court where the Thaw case now on, was regularly assigned in court were in court this morning. The names of these talesmen had to be called and then they were excused. While this formality was gone through the Thaw case waited. A mysterious woman made her appearance in the case today. She came with Mrs. Evelyn Thaw and May MacKenzie and sat with them in the court room. No one outside the Thaw party knew the woman. It was stated that she was an important witness who will have a hand in "trying" to clear Thaw.

The crowd without the court room today was the largest which has yet appeared. A larger force of policemen was on hand and the people were kept moving.

All excuses to gain admission to the court room failed.

When the regular February term of court had been adjourned and the talesmen excused, Justice Fitzgerald called a special term in which to try Thaw.

A conference was held between District Attorney Jerome and counsel for Thaw and Justice Fitzgerald, which lasted several minutes.

The Thaw family sat in the accustomed places and keenly watched the proceedings. David M. Carvalho, a handwriting expert, sat beside Thaw. What Carvalho's connection with the case may be is not known.

After the conference, Assistant District Attorney Garvan arose and opened the case for the State. Garvan said the purpose of punishment of crime is the example to the community. "The defendant is charged with the murder of Stanford White with premeditation on June 25, 1906." He then told of the movements of White on the night of the shooting at Madison Square roof garden, and described the shooting. "It was murder, criminal, cruel and malicious, and the State will prove these facts," he concluded.

After the opening address District Attorney Jerome asked the witnesses on both sides to leave the room. Miss MacKenzie left the room and Evelyn Thaw went with her. As Evelyn passed her husband she took his hand and held it for a moment. As she turned away, tears trickled down her cheeks. Harry Thaw was visibly nervous and drummed on the table with his fingers.

Lawrence White, son of the dead architect, was the first witness. Young White said he took dinner with his father at the Cafe Martin and then left him to attend the New Amsterdam theater. He first heard of the shooting when he returned home after the show.

Thaw's counsel did not cross examine White.

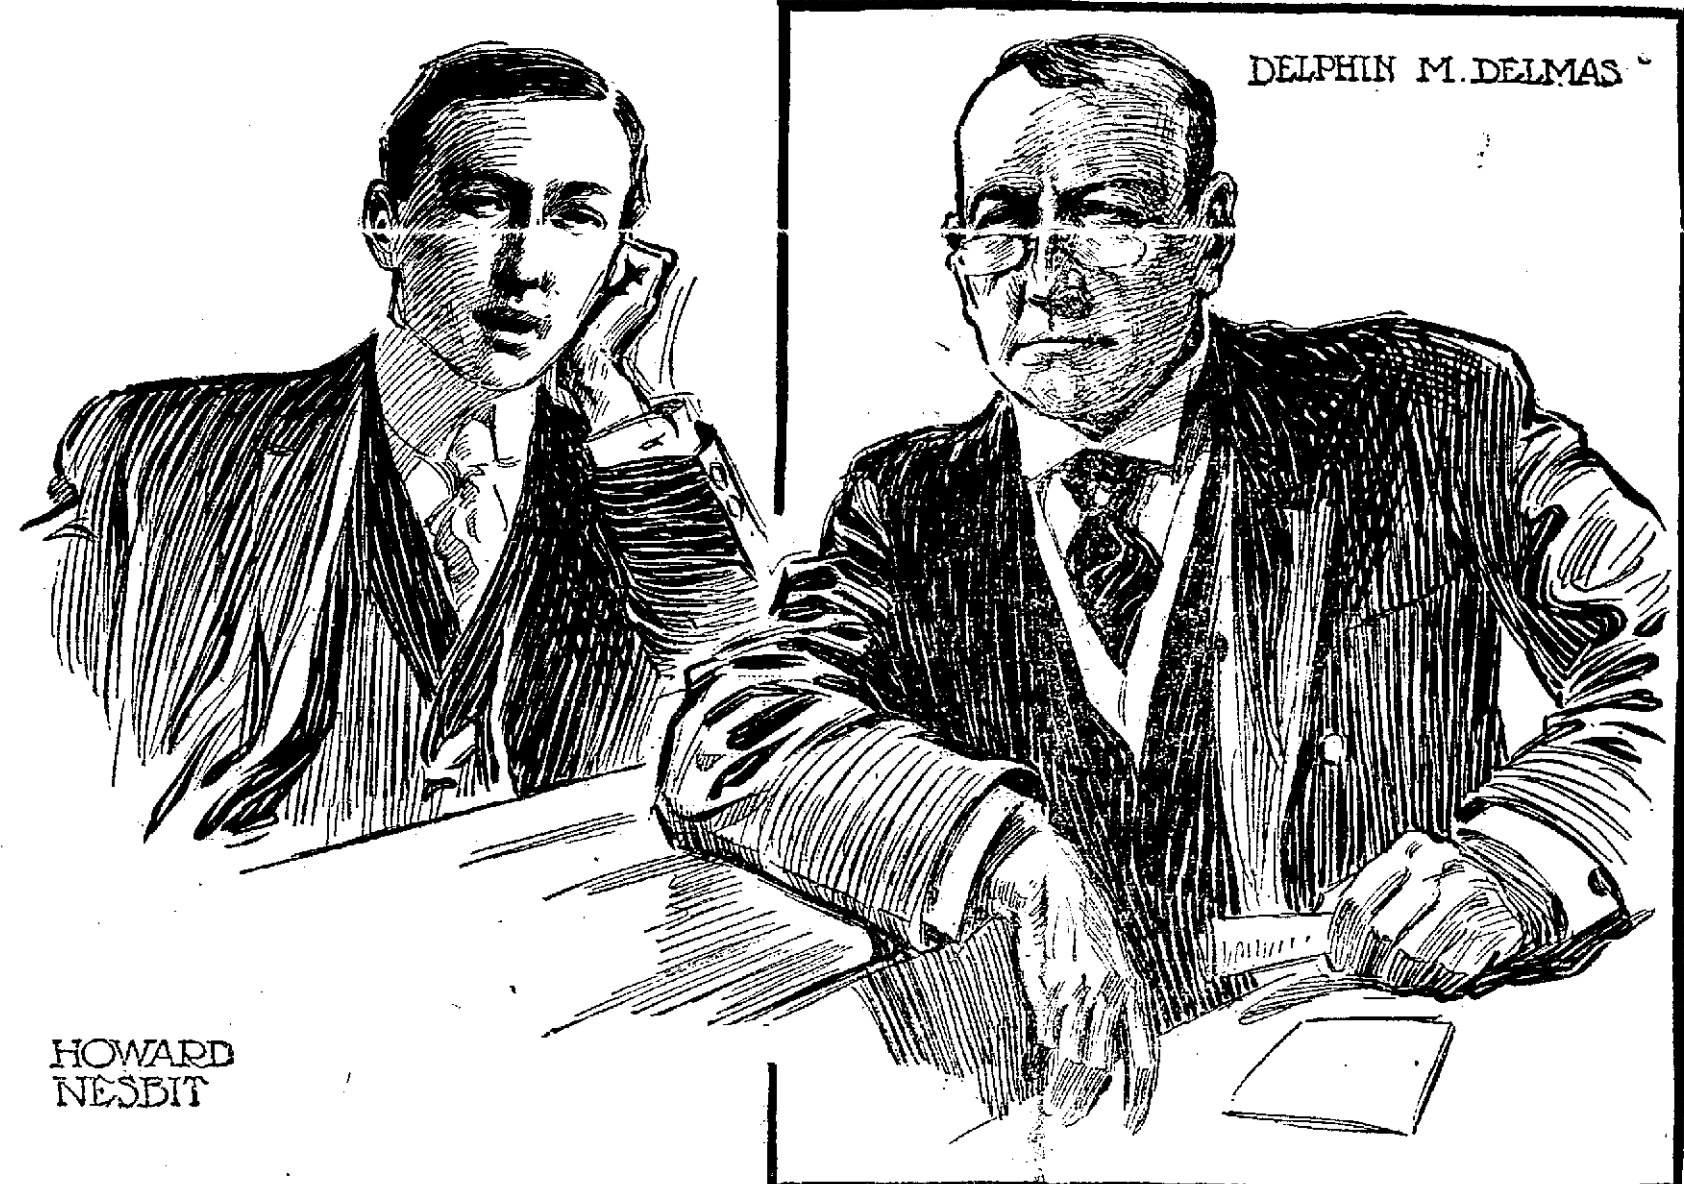

Robert Paxton, an engineer employed in Madison Square Garden, was called as the second witness. He said he had known Mr. White for years. The witness described the roof garden as it was arranged that night. There were two passageways and groups of tables were placed about the roof.

"What kind of a night was it?" asked Mr. Garvan.

"It was a hot, sultry night," was the reply.

The witness said that Mr. White took a seat near the stage, and that Harry Thaw came to the roof about (Continued on page 5, 3d col.)

DELPHIN M. DELMAS

HOWARD NESBIT

Mr. Delmas is said to be one of the keenest of the criminal practitioners of the day and he comes to the Thaw case with a reputation of being able to resist all attacks from the opposition. Young Nesbit, whose sister is one of the central figures of the tragedy, is expected to be an important witness in the trial.

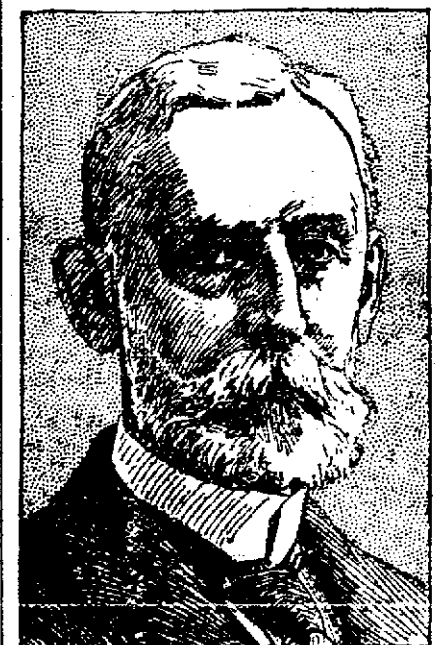

SENATOR DRYDEN OUT OF THE RACE IN NEW JERSEY

UPON THE ADVICE OF HIS PHYSICIANS HE WITHDRAWS HIS NAME.

This Breaks the Deadlock and Frank O. Briggs Will Likely be Elected Senator.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Acting on the advice of his physicians, Senator John F. Dryden of New Jersey has withdrawn his name as a candidate for re-election to the senate of the United States. His physicians have warned him of the danger to his health if he persisted in attending the public meeting arranged at his request to be held at Trenton. It was Senator Dryden's intention to address the Republican members of the legislature and set forth the reasons, in his opinion, why he should be re-elected to the senate.

In explaining the senator's withdrawal from the senatorial race his private secretary made the following statement: "Senator Dryden concluded that a continuance of the deadlock would tend to injure the party and the state. Accordingly, he formally announced his intention to withdraw. Senator Dryden is not dangerously ill. His condition is such, however, that his physicians and family consider it of vital importance that he should be relieved at once of any further strain upon his strength, and that complete rest from all cares is absolutely necessary."

SENATOR JOHN F. DRYDEN.

Following the senator's decision to withdraw his name, his physicians, Drs. Edward J. Hill and Charles L. Hill, sent the following telegram to the Republican leaders in the New Jersey senate and house of assembly: "The condition of Senator J. F. Dryden's health is such, on account of the long and severe strain under which he has been, that we, his physicians, have advised him that it is of imperative importance that he should not attend the proposed conference at Trenton."

With Senator Dryden out of the race, Washington opinion is that Frank O. Briggs of Trenton, now treasurer of the state, will most likely be elected senator.

Excavation of Herculeum.
Rome, Feb. 4.—Sir E. H. Egerton, the British ambassador, has interested the Italian government in favor of the plan of Charles Waldstein, professor of fine arts, King's college, Cambridge, for the excavation of the ancient city of Herculeum, and has received assurances that the application and the plan of Professor Waldstein are being studied.

MRS. LONGWORTH ILL WITH GRIP AT WASHINGTON

Her Condition Not Regarded as Serious, Although Her Temperature Reached 102.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth, wife of Representative Longworth of Ohio and daughter of the president, is ill at her home in this city with what is stated at her home to be a slight attack of grip. The president and Mrs. Roosevelt spent some time at the Longworth home, and were very much concerned about their daughter's health when they were informed by the attending physician that her temperature had gone up to 102. Mrs. Longworth contracted a severe cold while attending the White House reception last Thursday night and has been confined to her bed for three days.

MILLION DOLLARS MORE NEEDED FOR WATER WORKS

Ten Million Already Spent on an Improvement That Was to Cost Below Six.

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 4.—A million dollars more are needed to complete the new waterworks now in course of construction, according to the annual report of President August Herman of the board of commissioners.

Ten million dollars have already been expended though the original estimate was below $6,000,000. Herman suggests a bond issue at once and some stirring agitation is promised.

Pioneer Publisher.
Kearney, Neb., Feb. 4.—Noses H. Sydenham, one of Nebraska's earliest pioneers, died suddenly here of heart failure, aged 80. He published the Kearney Herald, the first newspaper issued on the then "Great American Desert."

Alex Lurchers, 36, a Hungarian, employed at the Buckeye Steel Casting company of Columbus, O., was caught by a large wheel and killed.

DUE REPARATION TO BE DEMANDED BY NICARAGUANS

FOR THE INVASION OF THEIR TERRITORY BY HONDURAS TROOPS.

AND KILLING OF SOLDIERS

Zelaya's People Not Satisfied by His Offer to Arbitrate the Matter.

Managua, Nicaragua, Feb. 4.—A number of Honduran rebels recently organized themselves into a band in the interior of the country, and after securing arms marched toward the frontier of Nicaragua. Hearing of this movement, the Honduran government sent a body of troops in pursuit of the revolutionists. When the latter were informed that government troops were on their trail they crossed the frontier and took refuge in Nicaraguan territory, some of them even penetrating as far as Managua. A small body of Nicaraguan troops was then sent out to patrol the Honduran frontier in order to prevent further incursions. This body of troops was unexpectedly attacked on Nicaragua territory by a strong force of Honduran soldiers. The Nicaraguans were worsted. Many of them were killed in the fighting, and it is said that the Hondurans shot some of the Nicaraguan soldiers who surrendered. The Hondurans then came further into Nicaraguan territory, burning and destroying property and committing robberies.

President Zelaya of Nicaragua entered an energetic protest regarding the action of this body of Honduran soldiers, and demanded indemnity from Honduras. To this President Bonilla of Honduras replied by offering to arbitrate the matter. This proposal was accepted by President Zelaya, who sent a representative to Salvador, where a court of arbitration is now in session to conduct negotiations on this basis. Nicaraguan people, however, are far from content with this way of settling the invasion of their territory and the killing of their countrymen. They have arisen and demand reparation for this outrage by Honduran troops upon the soldiers of Nicaragua and upon the properties of Nicaraguan citizens.

Oliver Meets Contractors.
New York, Feb. 4.—William J. Oliver of Knoxville, Tenn., the lowest bidder for the construction of the Panama canal, held a conference here with 10 other contractors who will, it is understood, be associated with him in the event that his bid is accepted.

GRAIN ELEVATOR COLLAPSED.
Bellefontaine, O., Feb. 4.—The Timmen grain elevator at Lakeview collapsed last night and 1,000 bushels of corn poured out. The dwellings of J. W. Shultz on the next lot was demolished by falling timbers.

The cracking timbers gave warning of impending danger and no one was injured.

NATIONAL BANK CLOSED.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The First National Bank at Scotland, South Dakota, has been closed by Bank Examiner Silbey. No cause is given for the action.

Governor Folk Ill.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 4.—Dr. C. P. Houghton, attending Governor Folk, stated that while the governor had been threatened with pneumonia, his condition is satisfactory and the fever reduced. The governor has been ill for two days.

BROKER SUICIDE BY JUMPING FROM WINDOW AT HOME

Suicide Pact Entered Into by a Couple in New York, Successful for the Woman.

New York, Feb. 4.—Howard P. Frothingham, who while delirious from nervous breakdown jumped from the second story of his home in West Seventy-seventh street, is dead. Nervous strain due to recent reverses in Wall street is believed to have caused the despondency which resulted in the deed. Mr. Frothingham had passed his forty-fifth birthday, and was probably the biggest and best-known loan broker in the country, lending more "call" money annually than any other man or firm. He handled money for nearly all the large financial institutions. His patronage was very large and his commissions in the lending business alone are said to have amounted to more than $100,000 a year.

Suicide Pact.

Auburn, N. Y., Feb. 4.—Asa Kenyon of Oneonta and Mrs. Marie Dedrick of Syracuse, in compliance, according to the police, with suicide pact, each drank the contents of an ounce vial of laudanum in a room at the Exchange hotel. Mrs. Dedrick is dead, but it is believed Kenyon will recover. He is under arrest. The couple have been in Auburn for a week. Kenyon recovered sufficiently to tell the police that he and Mrs. Dedrick agreed to die because they were tired of life.

WHOLESALE SCHEME

For Smuggling Chinese From Mexico Into the United States.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 4.—Returning from a trip of investigation at Mexican ports and along the border between the United States and Mexico, Marcus Braun stated that he had found extensive thoroughly organized and wholesale schemes for smuggling Chinese into this country. The investigation was undertaken for the personal information of President Roosevelt. Mr. Braun declined to give details as to his conclusions and discoveries. He did state, however, that one remedy would be to have mounted line riders in sufficient numbers to patrol the border.

Near Linton, Ind., a storage house containing about powder and dynamite blew up, fatally injuring seven foreign workmen.

POLICE CALLED TO PREVENT RIOT IN PARIS CHURCH

WHERE A NEW CATHOLIC SCHISM WAS INAUGURATED SUNDAY.

ROOT ARCHBISHOP VILATTE

Who is Characterized as an "American Monkey."—Tumultuous Scenes Enacted.

Paris, Feb. 4.—The French Apostolic Catholic church was inaugurated Sunday at the old Barnabite monastery, which has been rechristened the Church of the Holy Apostles. Only the presence of police prevented bloodshed. The announcement of the attempt to organize a schism had stirred up the militant Catholics, who organized a hostile reception with the intention of breaking up the services. Handbills were distributed containing the words of a popular air, describing Archbishop Vilatte, head of the independent Catholic movement in America, as an American monkey whom M. Briand, minister of public instruction and worship, desired to make a French pope. Thousands were outside the church and scores of others penetrated the already crowded building.

The interruptions commenced as soon as Father Roussin, the pastor of the church, began his sermon welcoming the approaching Catholic independence and the dawning of the day when "all the churches of Jesus Christ will unite in Christian charity." When he thanked Archbishop Vilatte for aiding the French Catholics in establishing the first church, saying he was consecrated by the Patriarch of Antioch, the successor of St. Peter, a shout in the rear of the edifice, "He is excommunicated!" was the signal for a general tumult, and Father Roussin finally was compelled to ask that the police be summoned.

About 50 persons were expelled from the church, and quiet was practically maintained until Archbishop Vilatte appeared in the altar in the robe and miter of an archbishop. Instantly the din began again with redoubled force, almost drowning his words. Nevertheless, he calmly continued, saying he had been a missionary for 36 years, but no savage tribe had ever prevented him speaking, and concluding: "Even to those who interrupt and revile me, I say I will not excommunicate. I wish no ill. God be with you, Amen." A score or more of other persons were then ejected before Archbishop Vilatte proceeded with the celebration of pontifical mass, in which he observed the Catholic rites.

Minister Briand's Circular.

Paris, Feb. 4.—Minister of Public Instruction and Worship Briand has taken a more extended stride toward the solution of the church difficulties than had been expected in the most optimistic quarters. M. Briand structures the recent enactments in the most liberal spirit. A circular forwarded to the prefects of all departments for communication to the mayors, expresses this by recognizing the entire freedom of the mayors, with the authorization of the municipal councils, to grant leases of churches, rent free, to common-law associations or clergymen, the only restriction being that the duration of a contract may not exceed 15 years without the approval of the prefect. The lessee is merely held responsible for all repairs.

BOY HELD INSANE FOUND NOT GUILTY

Tacoma, Wash., Feb. 4.—Chester Thompson, on trial for murder of Judge George Meade Emery on July 7, 1906, was found "not guilty by reason of insanity" by the jury. The boy was remanded to await the court's orders. Chester Thompson is a member of a well-known Indiana family, being a nephew of the late Morris Thompson, the novelist, and a son of Will H. Thompson, author of the celebrated poem, "The High Tide at Gettysburg."

Associate of Horace Greeley.

Bridgeport, Conn., Feb. 4.—David Peck Rhoades, one of the founders of the New York Tribune and an associate of Horace Greeley, died at his home in Stratford, aged 84. After leaving the Tribune Mr. Rhoades formed the New York News company, which business he conducted for some years until he sold out to the American News company and retired. Death was the result of a shock caused by a fall suffered by Mr. Rhoades a week ago as he left the rooms of the Stratford Social club.

WAR STORIES DISCREDITED

The Mikado's Empire Will Stand on Its Treaty Rights in Settling the Dispute.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The conciliatory tone adopted by the municipal and school authorities at San Francisco just previous to their departure for Washington is exceedingly gratifying to the administration. If the delegation meets the President in a friendly manner, there is no doubt but that the whole difficulty can be speedily straightened out to the satisfaction of both Japan and the United States. The President will not object to Mayor Schmitz taking upon himself the credit for saving the country from a conflict with Japan, as it is intimated the mayor will probably do, should he accede to the President's wishes.

ALARMING REPORTS ARE DISCREDITED.

Tokio, Feb. 4.—Statements of officials here discredit the alarming stories from Washington and London that a conflict between Japan and the collapsed last night and 15,000 bush-count Hayisha, foreign minister, today said that Japan had not the slightest idea of going to war with the United States. Stories that Ambassador Aoki handed an ultimatum to Secretary Root are laughed at here. The suggestion that the dispute be solved by mutual treaties, excluding laborers as immigrants, is opposed by the Japanese. The prevailing feeling is that Japan's treaty rights must form the basis of a settlement.

Washington, Feb. 4.—A conference between President Roosevelt, Secretary Root and the San Francisco board of education, which Mayor Schmitz will attend, is expected to be held in Washington on Friday or Saturday to discuss the Japanese school question. It is understood that the president will endeavor to induce the board of education to rescind its action excluding the Japanese children from the schools.

It is in order for Captain Richmond Pearson Hobson, representative-elect from Alabama, to produce witnesses or a photographic copy of the ultimatum from Japan he says he saw declaring Japanese children must be admitted to San Francisco schools, or the United States must "take the consequences." Members of the administration, without exception, scout the story of an ultimatum as false. In one very high office Captain Hobson was called "just a plain romancer." It was said that in the very nature of things such matter could not have been sent by Japan and received in Washington, and it is now believed stories of war, immediate and irrevocable, with which the country has been regaled for three days, emanated from Alabama.

Feeling in Japan.

Tokyo, Feb. 4.—After a careful survey of public feeling here regarding the prospect of a satisfactory solution of the San Francisco school controversy, it may be stated that while the approach to the termination of the disagreeable affair is welcomed, yet the report from Washington that a solution may be effected by a mutual treaty excluding the immigration of laborers is generally disbelieved as unreasonable. According to the prevailing feeling a solution must be effected on Japan's treaty rights pure and simple. However, confidence continues that a solution of the question will be reached without the least sacrifice of Japanese honor and prestige.

"Salome."

Most Vivid and Growsome Operatic Sensation Ever Known in the United States.

Striking Features of the Strauss-Wilde "Music Drama," Retired From the Metropolitan Opera House After One Production—Perversion of a Dramatic Bible Story Pronounced as an Unspeakable Exhibition of Degeneracy.

By ROBERTUS LOVE.

UNQUESTIONABLY the most vivid and vital opera sensation ever known in the United States is now raging in New York and rapidly spreading to the rest of operatic America. The sensation is "Salome"—the unnamed Salome of the Bible, the Salome of Richard Strauss's music, the Salome of Oscar Wilde's play.

And the worst of these is the Wilde Salome.

After one production at the Metropolitan Opera House the Strauss-Wilde "music drama" has been retired, so far as that institution is concerned. But it was not prohibited by the police authorities nor was its sudden suspension due to public protest. Most remarkably, "Salome" got its quietus through a pen stroke from the secretary of the opera house directors, half a dozen millionaires who are the principal owners of the property. These men, headed by J. Pierpont Morgan, instructed their secretary to notify Herr Corried, director of the opera house, that "Salome" was objectionable and detrimental to the best interests of the house. "We therefore protest against any repetition of this opera," was the ultimatum.

And it is said that Miss Anne T. Morgan, daughter of the famous financier, induced her father to lead the fight against the opera.

Being under contract with Strauss, the composer, Herr Corried may propulses could imagine. Here is the story as told in the fourteenth chapter of Matthew:

"For Herod had laid hold on John and bound him and put him in prison for Herodias's sake, his brother Philip's wife."

"For John said unto him, It is not lawful for thee to have her."

"And when he would have put him to death he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet."

"But when Herod's birthday was kept the daughter of Herodias danced before them, which pleased Herod."

"Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask."

"And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger."

"And the king was sorry. Nevertheless for the oath's sake and them which sat with him at meat he commanded it be given her."

"And he sent and beheaded John in the prison."

"And his head was brought in a charger and given to the damsel, and she brought it to her mother."

Best of All Herods.

In the sixth chapter of Mark the story is told with a little more detail. The name of Salome is not mentioned at all. For that we must turn to secular history. We find that Salome was the daughter of Philip and Herodias. Philip was the half brother of duce the opera at some other New York house and in several other American cities, but it appears that so far as the Metropolitan is concerned "Salome" is taboo.

Practically all the New York newspapers pronounced the opera an unspeakable exhibition of degeneracy. Private citizens likewise excoriated it in the press. But the fact that these rich opera house owners set their ban against the production, though the first night's receipts were above $20,000, is highly significant. Nothing like that ever before happened in this country.

To quote a familiar advertising line, "there's a reason." No matter what may be one's individual attitude in regard to art in poetry and music, "Salome" as played and sung by Herr Corried's artists is inevitably offensive and shocking to the average person. It is calculated to offend conventional senses of propriety, whether one be religious in the orthodox meaning or not. And for one who reverences the Bible and biblical characters "Salome" is an affront to the very soul of sanctity.

Oscar Wilde wrote the words of this play. He wrote it in French as a one act drama. It was translated into English by Lord Alfred Douglas, bosom friend of Wilde. Sarah Bernhardt was prohibited from playing it in England by the operation of a law in that country against the production of plays containing scenes from the Bible.

Perversion of Bible Scenes.

But, strictly speaking, "Salome" as conceived by Wilde is not really a portrayal of Bible scenes. It is a perversion of them. Most of the action and all of what some persons call the motif sprang from the brain of Oscar Wilde. In the New Testament he found a dramatic story, horrible enough there, inasmuch as it told of the beheading of John the Baptist by Herod at the instigation of Herod's wife, Herodias. Wilde heaped horror upon horror. He perverted altogether the Bible story, reading into it meanings which no man of ordinary human im-

Herod Antipas, the Herod named in the passage quoted. This Herod unlawfully married his brother's wife, who deserved Philip for him. Salome became the wife of her half uncle, also named Philip, a half brother of her father Philip. This second Philip was said to be the decenter of the whole tribe of Herods. He did some respectable things, which cannot be said for the rest of them, who were in very truth a miserable lot of human beasts. Salome's husband died in the year 34 A. D., at Bethsaida, which place he had made into a city. So far as history records, Salome was a decent, well disposed woman as things went in those days.

Now, what does Oscar Wilde make of Salome? Verily the most hideously depraved female wretch in the chronicles of fact or fiction, a physical and moral degenerate of the lowest type, a revolting and disgusting woman.

Dramatists are not supposed to stick to sober fact even when writing historical plays. Nobody expects that. Fault is not to be found with Wilde for imagining things to strengthen his dramatic theme. His fault lies in the things he imagined. Of these one need not speak further.

The dramatist makes Salome herself responsible for the beheading of John the Baptist rather than her mother, who brought about the prophet's death by way of revenge for his opposition to her unholy alliance with Herod. He makes Herod in love with Salome and Salome in love with John the Baptist. Some of Wilde's perversions of the biblical tale are based upon the manderings of previous dramatists and romanticists. But the worst of them are cut of his own mind. They are simply Wildesque.

Forerunner of Christ.

In the play as produced at the Metropolitan Opera House, then, we have Salome demanding of Herod the head of John the Baptist, the man who prophesied the coming of the Messiah. She demands it because she has made love to him and he has repulsed her. John the Baptist was one of the most Important characters in the Bible. He was the forerunner of Christ. More than that, he was a second cousin of Christ.

Yet here we have in the closing scene, as Mme. Olive Fremstad plays the role, Salome receiving the severed and bleeding head of this sacred prophet, fondling it, kissing its lips and thus making a scene which caused many women in the audience to retire to the cloak-rooms in disgust. Horribly realistic, a papier mache head is handed to the singer and actress and is displayed for about twenty minutes.

This is the supreme affront of the opera "Salome" to Christian people, following, as it does, the notorious "Dance of the Seven Veils" and the further exhibitions of degeneracy throughout the play. If you saw the oriental dances introduced into America by Gaston Akoun fourteen years ago on the Midway plaisance at the Chicago World's fair you saw something like the dance in "Salome." Mme. Fremstad did not perform this dance. It would have been physically impossible for her to have done it and the singing. Mme. Bianca Froelich, a clever dancer, was cleverly substituted for that strenuous performance. This is what Mme. Froelich herself says of the dance:

"It is symbolic and eastern. It is nothing but a danse du ventre. As given in Europe it was ten times as sensational as it is here."

The danse du ventre, it will be remembered, was popularly called the "hootchie cootchie" at Chicago. Protest against it has stirred the public in connection with every American exposition since the one at Chicago.

A Candid Opinion.

Mme. Fremstad, who sings the part of Salome, talks candidly about it.

"We all realize that the theme is revolting," she says. "Certainly it is not 'Parsifal.' But I am concerned in the art of it. Even in the opera Salome is the worst sort of degenerate, but Strauss makes something more of her at the last, where she gets her idea of what love means. Her instinct toward good comes into play when she sees the head before her. Her feeling is partly passionate and partly ideal."

This view of the character may go for what it is worth. Opera artists have viewpoints quite removed from those of the average individual.

According to Herr Corried, the production of "Salome" is a great artistic achievement. The world of music, it is said, holds this to be perhaps the most important music drama since Wagner. It has been produced in many of the European cities, notably at the royal opera houses of Berlin and Dresden, and at Milan and Turin, and is now in rehearsal at Vienna and Paris.

Carl Burrian, who sings the role of Herod, says: "In Germany there is no feeling about it. Young girls go to this opera and enjoy it. It was played there quite as realistically as in America. Let them shorten the disagreeable part and make the scene with the head less repulsive. Fit it to people's ideas. I think the directors should take the middle ground. Simply make it less repulsive. It should be softened."

So here we have views of the leading singers and actors themselves, each of whom out of his own mouth condemns the piece according to the American notion of propriety.

One more statement from the producers of this operatic sensation may be quoted. Says the business manager of the opera house, "The only religious personage in the work, John the Baptist, is treated with the utmost dignity and reverence."

This looks to be quite the most remarkable view of them all.

Musical World Divided in Its View.

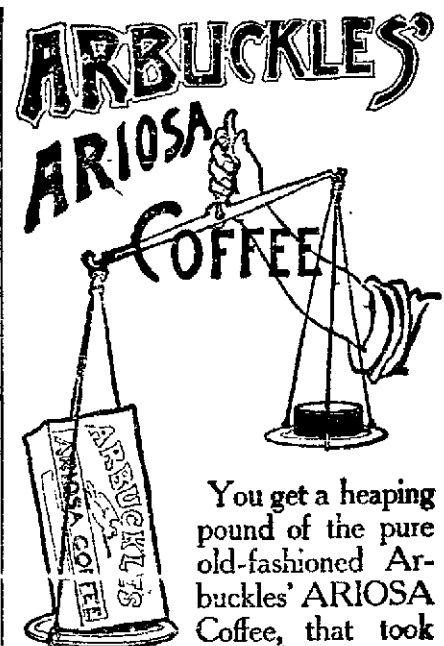

The Strauss music is in itself a sensation. The musical world is divided as to its value. Some hold that if this sort of thing prevails and goes under the name of music, then the splendid art of music is doomed. Others proclaim the Strauss "Salome" a magnificent triumph, a revolution in the forward development of music. As a matter of fact, the general public must take it for granted either way.

Bill Nye once said of Wagner's music, "It is really better than it sounds." This is the only loophole of escape for Strauss, in the opinion of many who have heard his "Salome." No one denies, however, that the composer has interpreted with most amazing and audacious fidelity the meanings of Oscar Wilde, word for word. If idea or suggestion can be translated into music, Richard Strauss has done it. Some persons who know music when they hear it are loud in declaring that the Strauss score is equally degenerate with the Wilde book.

As there are no words in any language to express certain "symbolic" suggestions, so there appear to have been no musical instruments to express the Strauss interpretations of parts of the Wilde "Salome." Accordingly, several new instruments, some of them fearfully and wonderfully made—like the sounds they produced—had to be invented for this production.

Miss Julia Marlowe and E. H. Sothern have in their repertoire a drama called "John the Baptist," in which the Salome as played and danced by Miss Marlowe is by no means so degenerate as the character in the opera. Nevertheless, the play does not seem to please New York. It is more than probable that the western world of the twentieth century is not yet ready for the dramatic presentation of a sacred theme, particularly when it is perverted to the putridity of the degenerate. Art is not art when it becomes unnaturally indecent.

In fact, there appears to be little likelihood now that "Salome" will be permitted anywhere in the United States.

Let Us Pay

For a Bottle of New Liquezone, and Give it to You to Try.

There is nothing to buy—not a penny to pay. We will buy the first bottle if you will try it and learn what Liquezone means to you.

Countless people have done that during the past five years. Some were discouraged and hopeless, believing that help was impossible. To many the facts seemed too good to be true. But they let the product itself prove its power. Then they told the results to others, and the others told others, until millions of people, all the world over, have shared in the benefits of this invention.

What Liquezone Is.

Liquezone is a tonic-germicide, the virtues of which are derived solely from oxide gases. No alcohol, no narcotic, nothing but gas enters into it. The process of making requires large apparatus, and consumes 14 days' time. The object is to so combine the gases with a liquid as to carry their virtues into the system.

The result is a germicide so certain that we publish with every bottle an offer of $1,000 for a disease germ that Liquezone cannot kill. It destroys them because germs are of vegetable origin. But to the body Liquezone is exhilarating, vitalizing, purifying. That is its main distinction. Common germicides are poisons when taken internally. They are impossible, for they destroy the tissues as well as the germs. That is why medicine proves so helpless in dealing with germ diseases. Liquezone, on the contrary, acts as a remarkable tonic.

We Paid $100,000.

For the rights to Liquezone, after thousands of tests had been made with it, after its power had been demonstrated for more than two years in the most difficult germ diseases. Conditions which had resisted medicine for years yielded at once to it and diseases considered incurable were cured. That was five years ago. Since then millions of people in every part of the world have shared in the benefits of this invention. Nearly every hamlet, every neighborhood, has living examples of its power. Now we ask you to let it do for you what it did for them.

Germ Diseases.

Most of our sickness has, in late years, been traced to germ attacks. Some germs—as in skin troubles—directly attack the tissues. Some create toxins, causing such troubles as Rheumatism, Blood Poison, Kidney Disease and nerve weakness. Some destroy vital organs, as in Consumption. Some—like the germs of Cholera—cause inflammation; some cause indigestion. In one of those ways, nearly every serious ailment is a germ result.

Such conditions call for a germicide, not for common drugs. Liquezone does what other means cannot accomplish. And it is wrong to cling to old ways when millions of people know a way that is better.

50c Bottle Free.

If you wish to know what Liquezone does please send us this coupon. We will then mail you an order on a local druggist for a full-size bottle, and will pay the druggist ourselves for it. This is our free gift, made to convince you; to let the product itself show you what it can do. In justice to yourself, please accept it today, for it places you under no obligations whatever.

Liquezone costs 50c and $1.

CUT OUT THIS COUPON. I will send and mail it to The Liquezone Company, 46-48 Wabash Ave., Chicago.

My disease is _____ I have never tried the new Liquezone, but if you will supply me a 50c bottle free I will take it.

We are now putting out an improved Liquezone, based on five years of experience. And even old users may accept the above offer to learn how much better the new product is. Liquezone is guaranteed under the new Pure Food Law. Any physician or hospital not yet using Liquezone will be gladly supplied for a test.

CATARRH A UNIVERSAL BLOOD DISEASE

Catarrh is usually worse in Winter, because of the cold, damp and suddenly changing climate. Colds are contracted, and neglected and as the secretions from the different inflamed membranes are absorbed into the blood the unpleasant symptoms of the disease commence. The nostrils are stopped up and a constant dropping of mucous back into the throat keeps up a continual hawking and spitting. The patient has dull headaches, ringing noises in the ears, and often slight fever and a depressed, half-sick feeling accompanies the disease. The blood becomes so fully charged with catarrhal matter that stomach troubles are brought on, the kidneys and bladder are affected, and if the blood is not purified of the poison the lungs become diseased because of the constant passage of impure blood through them. Catarrh cannot be cured with washes, sprays, inhalations and such treatment; these cannot reach the poison-laden blood where the real cause is located, and can only give temporary relief and comfort. A disease which affects the entire blood supply as does Catarrh, must be treated with a blood purifier. S. S. S. is the best remedy for Catarrh, which has grown to be a universal disease. It goes to the bottom of the trouble, rids the blood of the catarrhal matter, reinvigorates the circulation, and cures this disgusting disease permanently. When S. S. S. has purified the blood every part of the system receives a supply of fresh, healthy blood; then the inflamed membranes heal and every symptom of Catarrh passes away. Write for our book containing information about Catarrh, and ask for any medical advice you desire. No charge is made for either.

Victor Auxetophone.

On Friday the American Talking Machine company received a novel invention in the way of a musical machine and something which is not only entirely new to Newark, but has only been manufactured within the past three months. The device is known as the Victor Auxetophone. It stands on a high cabinet in which is the mechanism which runs it. Sound is produced by means of a small electric motor which compresses air to run the machine. Reproduction is brought about by air passing through reeds placed above the needle instead of by the use of the mica diaphragm. By means of a small invariable adjuster sound can be increased or diminished at the will of the operator. When played at its loudest the instrument fills a room as completely as if the musicians themselves were seated in it. The manager of the Union Block store have announced their intention of giving free concerts on the instrument Tuesday and Friday afternoons from 2 to 3 o'clock.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

On Friday of last week the relatives of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Edwards met at their residence in Johnstown to remind them that it was their 50th wedding anniversary. A table bountifully spread was surrounded by those present and to the many good things to eat all did ample justice. Those present were John Culp and wife of Thurston, Wm. H. Edwards and wife, Jacob Houdeshell and wife of Newark, Joseph Houdeshell and wife of Yetter, Iowa, Frank Edwards and daughter of Hebron, John Edwards, wife and daughter of Fredonia, Arthur Taylor and family, Dewitt Parsons, A. H. Lafever, wife and daughter, J. O. Montgomery and wife, George Wright and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards had 26 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren. They were the recipients of many useful and valuable presents.—Johnstown Independent.

INFIRM WOMAN KEPT IN JAIL FOR SOME TIME

AND HER RELEASE WAS FINALLY SECURED BY ADVOCATE REPORTER.

No Authority Apparent for Her Detention, But Officials Try to Shift the Blame.

Though she owns several houses in Newark and has a third interest in a 60 acre farm in northeastern Licking county, Mrs. Joseph Walton, wife of Dr. Walton, an eccentric farmer, residing near St. Louisville, was held at the county jail all day Saturday without a hearing. No specific charge had been placed against the woman and it was next to impossible to find any one who knew why the woman was locked up. Chief Sheridan explained that the arrest was made by the night officers and that all he knew of the case was contained in a brief report made by Captain Bell of the night force, saying that a demented woman had been found in West Newark and sent to the county jail. Sheriff Redman, when asked about the case, denied all knowledge of it, saying that the arrest had been made by the city officers and that the county had nothing to do with it except to hold the woman for the city police department.

A reporter called Mayor McCleery on the phone and learned that his honor had done nothing at all in the matter and when the Mayor was told that the woman was old and infirm, and that the case should have some consideration at once, he gave orders to have Mrs. Walton brought to his office.

In the presence of Chief Sheridan, Mayor McCleery and an Advocate reporter, Mrs. Walton told a pitiful story. She stated that she has been living in her husband's house on North Fifth street, which was also occupied by a colored family.

Mrs. Walton is past 70 years of age, and she said the colored people worried her and made her nervous. The woman is somewhat childish, but seems to be in pretty good condition, both mentally and physically.

When the mayor advised the woman to return to her home, she flatly refused, and said that she wanted to rent a couple of rooms and live by herself. She owns several pieces of property on Beech street, besides owning a third interest in a 60 acre farm in the vicinity of Wilkins' corners.

Her daughter lives on the farm and the police department communicated with her about the aged woman. Mr. Stickle, a son-in-law of Mrs. Walton, agreed to come to the city Sunday to look after Mrs. Walton.

This he failed to do, but telephoned to the officials that he could not care for the woman, so the police decided to take the matter to Probate Judge Brister.

Much criticism was heard because certain of the officials assumed an air of indifference with reference to the case. Mayor McCleery, though told of the woman's arrest Saturday morning, took no action in the matter until late Saturday afternoon, and then this would not have been done but for the fact that an Advocate man brought the matter to his attention.

Sheriff Redman was also accused of negligence. The police claim they thought that the woman was mentally unbalanced and that it was a case for the Probate court. Chief Sheridan gives it as his reason for not looking after the case.

Sheriff Redman stated that the woman was not crazy and that the matter was out of his jurisdiction. There was a failure of some one to make the proper report. If the woman was reported to the county officials to be demented and it was found that she was not, it was up to some one to report back to the city officers that the case was again on them.

There is some talk of filing an affidavit of insanity before the Probate court, but up to this time nothing has been done in the matter.

Tonsiline Cures Sore Throat

The throat is one of the most delicate parts of the body. It is also one of the most important, and should be given the best possible care. The throat is the gateway to the body. The air we breathe, the food we eat, the liquids we drink, all pass through it. It is very easily affected by cold, strain, exposure, etc., and Sore Throat is therefore one of our most common ailments. Strangely enough, it is also one of the most neglected.

Sore Throat is a very serious matter, for the whole system is in danger in consequence of it. Every Sore Throat patient is a candidate for Tonsiline, Quinsy, Diphtheria and other serious or fatal diseases, all of which can positively be prevented by the timely use of the Sore Throat cure, TONSILINE.

If taken in time a dose or two will do it. TONSILINE is made to cure throat diseases and nothing else. It is the one remedy for this purpose sold largely in the United States. Every user endorses it; every physician, knowing its virtues, commends it.

The one most important thing to remember about TONSILINE is the fact that it really does cure Sore Throat. All druggists, 50c and 50c bottles. The Tonsiline Co. Canton, Ohio.

IN POLICE COURT.

A case of mistaken identity landed a Newark man in jail Saturday night and gave two or three others sore pates as the result of a saloon brawl on the South Side. Ed Wells, a tinner, was playing pool in Taylor's saloon when he stepped into the bar room for a moment. A half dozen strangers surrounded him and accused him of coming into the place to start trouble. Without waiting for a denial or explanation, the men started something, and Wells defended himself like a man. When the police arrived, Wells was the only one in sight and he was locked up. Mayor McCleery continued the case until Tuesday morning to get a few witnesses.

George Mauk of Utica was locked up for drunkenness Sunday. He told the mayor that he had been a total abstainer for seven years until death invaded his family last summer and took his wife and three children within three weeks' time. He was given a chance to pay up.

Ben Thompson, James Robinson and James Gray were fined $5 and costs for being drunk. Each was sent to the county jail.

A Timely Warning.

Senator Rayner, of Maryland, recently made a strong speech against the centralization of power in the Federal government and the usurpation of the executive upon the domains of the judicial and legislative branches of the government. He took strong issue with Secretary Root's late speech in which it was assumed by the cabinet chief that the Federal government might exercise many powers residing in the States if the latter did not use them properly. President Roosevelt, the senator averred, had already exceeded his rights in several instances. "This new dispensation," he said, "is at utter war with judicial opinion. It makes a mockery of the unbroken lines of adjudications upon the subject. It turns the constitution into a rhapsody of words; and if the heresy is ever to be accepted by the coming generations we might as well apply the flames to the great edifice of constitutional thought that it has taken over a century to erect, and level it to the earth in all the symmetry of its proportions."
The President, Senator Rayner declared is laboring under the mistaken impression that he is responsible to the country for the legislation of Congress, and it is his duty to interfere when its proceedings do not comport with his own ideas as to what is best for the interests of the people. He had therefore ignored, not the letter, but the spirit and substance of the plan of division of governmental functions embodied in the constitution. Mr. Rayner aptly said: "Of course, with an executive who did not have the welfare of the people at heart such an illusion would be fatal to the stability of the Republic."
These words of the brilliant senator from Maryland are well worth pondering on. He admits President Roosevelt is desirous to promote the welfare of the people, but he points out that the very methods he has resorted to to induce Congress to comply with his views would be most dangerous if employed by an executive who had designs upon the liberties of the people, or who desired to advance his own ambition regardless of their welfare. Many persons are disposed to admire the President for the manner in which he has persisted in urging his views upon Congress, but the thoughtful cannot but see the danger involved in his creation of precedents for the invasion of the rights of the legislative department by the executive.

It is significant of the altered condition of affairs in our National Legislature that the representatives of the railroads have agreed with the House committee on postoffices and post roads to accept a reduction in the rate for carrying the mails which will result in a saving to the government of at least $3,000,000 annually. This reduction is claimed not to be as large as it should be, but before the bill gets through Congress a further reduction will be made. The proposed reduction will aid in wiping out the deficit in the postoffice department. If Congress will properly revise our postal laws, the annual deficit in that department will be replaced by a surplus without the postal service being in any way injured.

A PROMINENT EDUCATOR
DECLARES VINOL IS THE BEST
COD LIVER PREPARATION.

There has been a good deal of discussion in Newark regarding the merits of cod liver oil preparations. Emulsions that upset the stomach have any medicinal virtue, therefore; the following letter from M. A. Cassidy, superintendent of schools, Lexington, Ky., will be read with interest:
"I am pleased to state that after having used and tested the different cod liver oil preparations on the market, I find Vinol to be far superior to them all.
"Vinol built up my system, strengthened my nerves and made a new man of me, and I heartily endorse it as the most efficacious and agreeable cod liver oil preparation on the market."
Our local druggist, Mr. Frank D. Hall, when asked his opinion in regard to Vinol, replied: "We have never sold anything in our store better than Vinol to create strength, cure stomach troubles, chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis and incipient consumption, or to make growing children robust and give strength and vigor to the aged.
"It is for this reason that we offer to return money in every case where it fails." Frank D. Hall, Druggist.
Note—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Newark it is now for sale at the leading drug stores in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

Girl Found Dead.
Washington, Pa., Feb. 4.—The body of Miss Frances Martin, 18, was found in a room in the Forest building. Whether she was murdered or not has not yet been determined. A young man named John Ingers, with whom Miss Martin attended a theater, has been arrested and is being held to await the action of the coroner. There were no marks on the body indicating violence.

RAILWAY AFFAIRS

Norfolk & Western Tunnels.
The management of the Norfolk & Western has authorized contracts for six tunnels at a cost aggregating $2,000,000. The tunnels will be built in West Virginia, the object being to reduce curves and grades on the West Virginia division of the system. The tunnels will accommodate double tracks, the total length being 6,100. They are to be completed in three years.

To Mount the Matterhorn.
Plans for the construction of a railway to the Matterhorn, one of the most famous of the Swiss Alps, have been submitted to the Federal Council of Switzerland. The project is likely to be approved. The railway will cost $4,000,000 and will occupy four years in building. According to the plans, the railway, when completed, will enable tourists to make the round trip in three hours. The ascent on foot, which is dangerous, takes about 24 hours.

"Party Rates" Restored.
The railroads of Ohio have decided to restore the "party rates" which were abrogated when the two cent fare law went into effect. This is construed to mean that hereafter special rates will be granted to conventions within the state as well as outside.

Rates Reduced.
To meet trolley competition the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy has reduced its round trip rate from Chicago to Aurora, from $2.40 to $1.50.

Imitation Tickets.
Western roads are experiencing difficulty with ticket counterfeiters. Imitation tickets were made by engravers and sold to ticket brokers, who in turn sold them to the public.

To Relieve Car Famine.
Perhaps if the tens of thousands of cars standing in railroad yards and along sidings loaded with coal, were dumped and the empty box cars sandwiched in between the loaded coal cars were put out in commission it might relieve the car famine to some extent.

Survey Has Been Made.
An important meeting of the interested who are behind the proposed electric line from Mansfield to Mt. Vernon was held at the Citizens' bank. The survey of the line between Mansfield and Mt. Vernon has been made and was gone over at the meeting. It is expected that steps will be taken at the meeting looking towards the building of the road during the present year. The line is to be extended to Newark and from Mansfield to Mt. Vernon it will be known as the Mansfield & Southern.—Mansfield Shield.

THE CHARM OF A CLEAR COMPLEXION.
Nothing lends more to personal attractiveness than the clear skin and fresh rosy complexion that comes to those who use Laxakola tablets, 25 cents, a guaranteed cure for sallowness and constipation. W. A. Erman & Son.

Fever at Chicago.
Chicago, Feb. 4.—Fewer cases of scarlet fever and of other contagious diseases were reported to the health department than on any day since the epidemic began. No decrease, however, was shown in the number of deaths. There were 83 cases of fever, 26 of diphtheria and 19 of miscellaneous diseases, as compared with 407 cases of fever, 67 of diphtheria and 59 miscellaneous a week ago. There were seven deaths reported.

STATE PRINTER'S NEW TROUBLES

CLAIM IS MADE THAT JOHNSON'S TERM IN OFFICE EXPIRES
ON MAY 31.

Ann Arbor Road Fined $15,000 for Rebating—Columbus Drummer Assaulted.

Columbus, O., Feb. 4.—J. W. Johnson, state supervisor of public printing, is now threatened with a new trouble. A claim is being made that though the records show he received a commission from Governor Patterson authorizing him to hold his office until 1908 he will have to get out as soon after June 1 as Governor Harris chooses to appoint a successor. This proposition is based on what is said to be the precedent of the past. If the senate had affirmed instead of rejecting the appointment by Governor Herick of Mark Slater, Johnson's predecessor, Slater's commission would have expired at midnight May 31, 1907. It is claimed now that Johnson's commission should have been made to expire at that time.

Ann Arbor Road Soaked.
Toledo, O., Feb. 4.—After entering a plea of nolle prosequere to six counts charging rebating, the Ann Arbor railroad was fined $15,000 by Judge R. W. Taylor in federal court. The road was indicted by the grand jury on 135 counts following an examination by the interstate commerce commission. The claim was made that the present owners had no part in the rebating and were not aware that the former owners granted rebates. Each count was fined $1,500. The remaining indictments were nolle, but the indictments against the Toledo Ice and Coal company, with whom the rebating occurred, still stand.

Suit to Recover Big Sum.
Cincinnati, O., Feb. 4.—Suit to recover $55,000 from brokers, through whom it is believed to have been lost in stock deals, was brought by the German National bank of this city, whose former teller, Gustave Stecher, is asserted to have thus disposed of the money, which mysteriously disappeared from the bank. The suit was brought by the German National bank and the surety company which was on the teller's bond against William J. Odell and various brokerage firms in which Odell is interested.

Refused to Produce Books.
Cincinnati, O., Feb. 4.—Five officials of the Cincinnati Traction company were indicted under refusal to bring into court books, pieces of wreckage and other things wanted in the investigation of the recent Warsaw avenue accident, in which two men were killed. Those indicted are: President W. Kelsey Schoepf, Superintendent Robert E. Lee, Eighth street division; Superintendent Newton Wickersham, Claim Agent J. H. Schoepf, and Barn Boss William E. Blasing.

Drummer Assaulted.
Bellevue, O., Feb. 4.—John Kelley, a business man of West Liberty, has been bound over to the grand jury on the charge of assaulting with intent to kill C. B. Baxter, a representative of a Columbus wholesale grocery. Kelley, it is charged, walked up to Baxter on the main street of West Liberty and struck him on the head with a piece of gaspipe. Baxter was unconscious four hours and is still in a serious condition.

Granddaughter of Lincoln.
Mt. Pleasant, O., Feb. 4.—Warren Beckwith, in the district court here, filed suit for divorce from his wife, Jessie Beckwith, daughter of Robert Lincoln of Chicago and granddaughter of President Abraham Lincoln. So closely are the papers in the case guarded that the cause of the action is unknown, but it is supposed to be desertion, as the couple have not lived together for several years.

Houck in a Runaway.
Mount Vernon, O., Feb. 4.—Louis B. Houck, one of the best-known Democratic politicians in this state, was seriously hurt in a runaway accident. He was unconscious for several hours, but it is announced that, while terribly bruised and suffering from a broken collar bone, he will recover. Henry A. Mackay, who was with Mr. Houck when the team ran away, sustained a broken hip.

Must Wed to Get Fortune.
Findlay, O., Feb. 4.—Through the death of an uncle in Australia, John B. Lowery, who was born in this county 46 years ago, becomes the possessor of $20,000,000 left him by Duncan Cameron, who died at the age of 80 years, never marrying. The one condition attached to the bequest is that the heir must marry before he can come into possession of the great fortune.

Fires at Cincinnati.
Cincinnati, O., Feb. 4.—Fire completely destroyed the plant of the Thomas Kelsall company, manufacturers of office fixtures and billiard tables. A number of small residences adjoining were also damaged by the fire. The loss is estimated at $75,000. The "Day and Night" Tobacco company's plant also was burned. Loss $65,000.

Case Before Grand Jury.
Akron, O., Feb. 4.—The grand jury caused surprise by beginning an investigation of the Akron Savings bank, which failed for several hundred thousand dollars three years ago. The books of the bank were gone over and Captain Wagoner, the former cashier and ex-president of the board of penitentiary managers, was examined.

Gasoline Exploded.
Cleveland, O., Feb. 4.—John Burke, 22, was burned to death, and Mary Gardner Masterson, 20, was seriously burned by an explosion of a gasoline lamp in the home of the latter, where Burke was paying an evening call and helping the young woman fill the lamp when it exploded, enveloping both in flames.

SEVERE BLIZZARD IN THE NORTHWEST

Billings, Mont., Feb. 4.—The severest storm that has visited Montana within 20 years is raging over eastern Montana. Snow is falling fast and now covers the ground to the depth of nearly one foot, with no immediate prospect of ceasing. Men who have lived here for many years say that conditions are worse than at any time since 1886, at which time sheep died by the thousands. Thousands of sheep are being driven to ranches near this city to be fed. Train service is badly demoralized.

Severest Storm of Winter.
Kansas City, Feb. 4.—The severest storm of the winter is raging throughout Kansas and western Missouri, with temperature at or near zero, six inches of snow on the ground and snow falling, driven by a bitter wind. All trains are late.

Sultan Will Probe Charges.
Constantinople, Feb. 4.—The sultan has ordered a special commission to examine into the charges against Fehmi Pasha, chief of the secret police of the palace and a great confidant and favorite of the sultan, who, it is alleged by the German embassy, recently caused the seizure of a ship's cargo destined for Hamburg. Meanwhile, the proprietor of a forest near Midyah, on the Black sea, has taken refuge in the German embassy for protection against Fehmi Pasha. He recently was detained as a prisoner for a fortnight by Fehmi Pasha, who forced him by frequent beatings to sign a document agreeing to pay him 20 per cent of the income of his forest industry.

WALTER GARBER KILLED BY CARS

The sad intelligence was received here Sunday night that Walter E. Garber, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Garber of this city, had been killed while at work in the yards of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern railroad in Detroit, where he had been employed as switchman for the past two years. Immediately upon the receipt of the telegram Mr. Garber left for Detroit. Walter Garber was well and favorably known by many people in Newark who deeply sympathize with the family in their great sorrow. No particulars of the young man's death have as yet been received.

THREE FROZEN AND FIVE ASPHYXIATED

Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 4.—A woman and two children were found frozen to death in an upstairs tenement here, with a third child in an adjoining room badly frozen, but alive. The dead: Emma K. Livingston, 50, single; Alfred L. Livingston, 7; Lincoln B. Livingston, 3. Badly frozen: Helen Livingston, 10. Miss Jennie Livingston called at the residence to pay a visit and found her sister, Miss Emma Livingston, and one child dead in bed, one child dead on the floor and Helen in the adjoining room, badly frozen.

Three Killed by Gas.
Newark, N. J., Feb. 4.—Jacob Kunz and his daughters, Caroline, 6 years, and Barbara, 20 months, are dead, and his daughter Jennie, 9, is in a precarious condition as the result of asphyxiation. Kunz and his daughters were asleep in the same bed, while Mrs. Kunz, who was not affected, was asleep in an adjoining room.

Couple Asphyxiated.
New York, Feb. 4.—John Liveroni and his wife were found asphyxiated by the young children. Mrs. Liveroni's body was in the bed, while that of her husband sat fully dressed in a chair. The police believe the couple formed a suicide pact, or that Liveroni, despondent because of lack of work, turned on the gas after his wife went to sleep.

Levees Hold Intact.
Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 4.—With every main levee in this district holding intact, the crest of the high water in the Mississippi river has passed Memphis. The gauge stood at 40.2 feet, a fall of one-tenth in 12 hours. The levee at Holybush, north of Memphis, which caused such apprehension, has withstood the enormous pressure of water, and the farm lands in its rear are believed to be safe. The river probably will recede rapidly in the next few days. In Memphis flood conditions are unchanged. The principal damage will be to the lumber interest, the yards of several large concerns standing in three feet of water.

HON. LEWIS B. HOUCK

Mr. Vernon O. Feb. 4.—Louis B. Houck, one of the best-known Democratic politicians in this state, was seriously hurt Sunday in a runaway accident. He was unconscious for several hours, but it is announced that, while terribly bruised and suffering from a broken collar bone, he will recover.
